Lawyer Mark Buckland joins Board of Dymocks Group

The Dymocks Group has appointed Mark Buckland as a director of the Group.

Mr Buckland joins the board having been Dymocks general counsel & company secretary since March 2009 and a director of all subsidiary companies since 2012.

Mr Buckland has been involved in significant Dymocks Group events. He managed the turnaround and sale of Healthy Habits; developed a new strategy and management team for confectioner Patons; and has been the driver and CEO of the launch and start-up of Dymocks Education.

"I am delighted to welcome Mark to the Dymocks board," said Chairman John Forsyth. As a manager and lawyer across all group divisions, his insight will be invaluable as we continue to grow and develop the Dymocks Group."
